

Anna Lisa

A milanese woman full of surprises

Introduction

About me

I can describe myself as a person who's always curious to find out what's behind the corner...

I lived my youth in Milan, in the 80s when everything was happy, beautiful, carefree, increasing and changing. Lots of chances for work, travel and cultivating your own hobbies. So I started!

Personal projects

I am a singer in three bands and I also play bass guitar in one of them.

Besides I started the journey to become a web master.

And, on the way, I've met my last-but-not-least passion: Korea!

Studying Korean and learning such a different culture was incredibly open minding and took me all the way to Korea, that's been an amazing and unforgettable trip.
